EVANS' FLEET IN MAGDALENA BAY

Warships Beat All Speed Records on Last Leg of Cruise.

SAN DIEGO, Cal., March 12.—While no additional word had come by wireless from the South today, and none is expected until well into the night, when the strong light waves of the sun make way for the other impulses of the wireless flashes, it is believed here at noon that the "American battle fleet" as it has been officially referred to by President Roosevelt is safe within the island-guarded harbor of Magdalena Bay, and that the sixteen big ships are riding at anchor in the blue waters of this most isolated but now most famous of Mexican ports.

The last word received from the fleet at the wireless station here was to the effect that the ships were off Magdalena, probably a distance of fifty miles or more, and would steam into the bay as soon after daylight as the steering points of the entrance—Redondo Point on the south and Entradita Point on the north—could be picked up by the navigating officers.

Magdalena on the Map.

These sailing orders should at noon have put the fleet into Man-o-War Cove, behind the rocky peninsula leading down from the north and serving as one of the unusual means of protecting this favored harbor. This peninsula also contains the little adobe settlement of Magdalena and the improvised customs house which has been opened by direction of the Mexican government to enable traders from the north to carry on business with the officers and men of the fleet, who, for a period of a month or more, are to be practically cut off from the rest of the world.

The length of the stay of the fleet at Magdalena is problematic. Target practice will require some time and will be followed by fleet drills in battle tactics. There seems to be no doubt, however, judging from the unexpectedly early arrival of the fleet at Magdalena, that the program of hard work laid down for the southern drill ground will be carried out with all possible expedition and that the fleet will sail through the Golden Gate of San Francisco on May 5, after having paid visits of as long duration as the itinerary permits at San Diego, Los Angeles, Santa Barbara and Santa Cruz on its way up the coast.

Think Heney Will Not Answer Call

SAN FRANCISCO, March 12.—Assistant District Attorney Heney has been subpoenaed to appear before Notary Gus Hartman tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock to give testimony in the case of Abraham Ruef against the managers of the graft prosecution for the recovery of money expended by him in the maintenance of the private jail on Filmore street, in which he was confined for several months.

'SHORTY' PARKER, BALL PLAYER, DIES OF WOUND

Death Claims Old Victim of Fred Ickler

ALAMEDA, March 12.—Clarence R. Parker, centerfielder of the Alameda team of the State baseball league, and known as "Shorty" Parker because of his stature, died last night in St. Mary's hospital, San Francisco, as the result of a bullet wound inflicted Saturday night last by Fred Ickler, while Parker was walking in the office of Dr. C. H. Miles and Dr. E. R. Lee, on Filmore street near Geary.

Ickler had no previous record against Parker and did not even know him. The gun-wielder was a patient of the physicians named and had become despondent over continued ill health. He visited the offices with the purpose, he said later, of killing the doctors. Not finding them in he began to shoot at whoever he saw.

He first killed Floyd Bedell, a stenographer, and then turned his revolver on Parker. Before the latter could escape he was shot in the back and his right leg was punctured.

Parker was 23 years of age, and lived at 4419 Home Avenue.

RUEF FAILS TO SECURE BAIL; JUDGE DOOLING REFUSES TO ACT IN CASE

Must Dismiss Indictments, Says Court

SAN FRANCISCO, March 12.—Abraham Ruef's release from the county jail upon bail aggregating $500,000, which he declares he can promptly furnish, was temporarily delayed today by the absence of Judge Frank Dunne. Judge M. T. Dooling, sitting for Dunne in the Tevis-Bulletin criminal libel case, declined to act in the matter of the five extortion indictments, and upon Ruef's plea of guilty to one of them, but nullified by the action of the Supreme Court.

Henry Ach, leading counsel for Ruef, made a motion for the withdrawal of the

ACH CLASHES WITH HENEY DURING THE RUEF HEARING

Ex-Boss Denied Release by Lawlor

(Special to The Tribune.) SAN FRANCISCO, March 12.—Judge Lawlor stated in open court this morning that he stood ready at any time to consider a proposition to drop the bail required in the duplicate indictments under which Abraham Ruef now labored in his home's court.

The court cannot take action, however, until Assistant District Attorney O'Garra shall have reported as to what these cases are.

The court set Monday next as the time at which he hoped all the affidavits would be filed with the court, but on the representation of Attorney Ach, agreed that of the instruments could not at that time be completed, he would like to receive some definite information as to when they will be.

Heney and Ach Clash.

This was the result of a protracted session at which a number of technical questions were discussed. At one time there was an exchange of sentiment between Heney and Ach, which brought out a rebuke from the court.

This was occasioned by the calling up of the question of the doing away with the bail on the dual indictments which was completed, he would like to receive some definite information as to when they will be.

WOULD-BE ASSASSIN SHOOTS INSPECTOR AND WIFE IN BED

Pools of Blood Make Room Like Shambles

SPOKANE, Wash., March 12.—Charles D. Curry, a Great Northern car inspector, and his wife were victims of an attempted assassination early this morning, when an unknown man entered their bedroom and shot both in the head, neither fatally.

The first theory was that Curry had shot his wife and attempted suicide, but this has been disregarded by the police. The bedroom looked like a shambles when the police arrived.

Soderberg was convicted of slaying his mother, Sigrid Martha Soderberg. The jury was out four hours, retiring shortly before five o'clock and returning its verdict at nine.

Soderberg was arrested and after having been questioned by the police for two days, finally broke down, and admitted that he had killed his mother, cutting her throat with a large knife.

RECEIVER EDOFF BEFORE GRAND JURORS

Investigation of Affairs of California Bank Under Way.

The question whether the wreck of the California Bank was caused by misplaced confidence on the part of D. Edward Collins, or whether he intentionally misappropriated and embezzled the bank's funds when he made investments, is now being considered by the grand jury. As yet the members of the grand jury are undecided as to whether or not Collins can be indicted.

Today's session was devoted entirely to the investigation of the affairs of the bank and Collins' connection with its failure. Two witnesses were examined this morning: James P. Edoff, who is the bank's receiver, and Attorney J. B. Richardson, a director of the bank, who charged that Collins made them knowing that he had either no security or poor security.

Richardson testified as to the manner in which loans were made by the bank, and as to the responsibility of the loans in question.

Collins Not Examined.

Collins himself did not testify today, and it is improbable that he will do so, as he has been advised not to answer questions that may be put to him by the grand jury.

There is still a mass of evidence to take before the grand jury, and it is not likely that the taking of testimony will end today. Another session will probably be necessary. Other witnesses who have been subpoenaed are F. H. Brooks, cashier of the bank; William Rutherford, a director; J. W. Phillips, a director; Benjamin Smith, a director and G. W. Downing, a clerk in the bank.

Trying to Limit Hindu Immigration

OTTAWA, Ont., March 12.—In the Senate yesterday Senator MacDonald of British Columbia offered a resolution declaring the immigration of Hindus should be limited as much as possible and the Canadian government should invite the aid of the Imperial government to limit the influx.

Hold-Up Throws Man; Takes $4; Escapes

SAN FRANCISCO, March 12.—Jasper Medsen, a cook, reported to Policeman Larkin at 6 o'clock this morning that he had been held up and robbed by a lone footpad who stepped out of a doorway on Jackson street, near Battery, pointed a pistol at his head and compelled him to throw up his hands. Medsen says the man then threw him to the sidewalk and robbed him of $4 in cash and a watch, after which he made his escape.

M. C. Chapman in The Ruef Case

SAN FRANCISCO, March 12.—M. C. Chapman, the well known Oakland attorney, has been associated as attorney of record for Abe Ruef in indictments $10 to $25 inclusive. On motion of Attorney Ach yesterday Mr. Chapman's name went into the record. The Oakland attorney has a wide reputation as a pleader before juries and has won fame in the courts of the State. He will take an active part in the defense of Ruef.

MME. ANNA GOULD SLAYER OF PRIEST SAILS AS PLAIN 'MRS. MILLER'

Also Changes Steamer So as to Dodge Her Former Husband.

(By Associated Press.) PARIS, March 12.—It became known here today that Mme. Gould, who sailed yesterday for New York on the steamer Adriatic, booked her passage under the name of Miller. She had originally taken passage for herself and her children on the Kron Prinz Wilhelm, but changed her plans at the last moment. Although she had the written consent of her former husband, Count Boni de Castellane, to take the children out of France, she adopted the ruse of changing steamers and using an assumed name in case the count should attempt at the last moment to prevent the children's departure. Count Boni had been under the impression that Mme. Gould and the children were on board the Kron Prinz Wilhelm and telegraphed his greeting to the children in care of that steamer.

POLICE TRY TO MAKE HER CONFESS

Woman Shows Effects of Imprisonment—Weeps for Dead Dog.

Mrs. Isabella Martin arrived from Weaverville last night in Oakland, her home city, a tear-stained, nervous and sadly altered person from the woman who but a few weeks ago left for Trinity county. She was brought back to Oakland to face trial on a charge of dynamiting the home of Superior Judge Ogden, for which felony she has been indicted by the Alameda county grand jury.

The woman was at once lodged in the city prison and today is being submitted to a most rigid examination by the heads of the police and detective departments. The police refused to allow the woman to be seen by any one, working on the theory that if she is kept away from outside influence and questioning, she may be led to make a confession as to all the startling charges which have been made against her.

Laments Dog's Death.

Mrs. Martin's own troubles seemed to have been entirely obliterated through the death of a huge mastiff, "Kruker," to which the woman was strongly attached. The animal died on the train at Dixon as a result of the trip in a wagon from Weaverville to Redding. He had been frightened out of Weaverville by the woman with her trunk. He was given a severe jolting on the road and succumbed after being put aboard the train. The dead body of the animal was brought to Oakland.

Since the arrival of the woman in Oakland in company of Detective St. Clair Hodgkins and Police Matron Baxter, the police are more than ever firmly convinced that Mrs. Martin is not insane, as many have presumed, but that she is a woman with criminal instincts largely developed. Whatever good there may have been in her make-up, seems, they say, to have been wiped out through the desire to wreak vengeance on those against whom she had fanned grievances.

Caused Much Trouble.

Detective Hodgkins said this morning that while Mrs. Martin had made no attempt to escape, she was obstinate throughout the wearisome trip from Weaverville and had caused no end of trouble because of her desire to have her own way. At times she acts like a spoiled child and again, in the words of the police, "like she is possessed of the devil."

On Monday night when she was notified in the Weaverville jail by Detective Hodgkins that she must prepare to start for Oakland the following morning, she declared that she would not budge an inch. It was with difficulty that she was induced to dress for the trip Tuesday morning. Upon her arrival at the sixteenth street station last night she refused to ride in the police auto patrol, and to please her she was put on a street car and taken to jail. Upon entering the prison she wept bitterly over the death of the dog "Kruker," but soon brightened up when asked if she wished something to eat.

Sent Out for Food.

When the cook at the city prison was instructed to provide a meal for her, she raised such a storm about being fed on prison fare that she was permitted to send a messenger for food to a restaurant. She insists that her confinement in the Trinity county jail has shattered her health. She looks careworn and ill and the seriousness of the charge of which she stands accused seems to be realized by her with full force.

Mrs. Martin complains bitterly of the treatment of Sheriff Doye of Trinity county. She says that he tried to make her confess to crimes of which she has no knowledge and said the sheriff was sorry to let her go as he wanted to keep her until he had obtained a full confession from her lips. Mrs. Martin is reported as saying that her son, Henry K. Hoffman of San Francisco, would provide counsel for her.

Insists Boy Lied.

As soon as the charge of arson pending against "Baby" John Martin is dismissed in Weaverville he will be brought to Oakland to give testimony against his putative mother, whose present predicament is due entirely to his confessions as to her criminal acts. Mrs. Martin insists that the boy has lied about her; that he has gained his own liberty at the cost of her own and that the lad should not be believed as he is "queer in the head."

It is admitted that the police will do all in their power to get Mrs. Martin to confess. She is being taken over the case today by Captain Petersen from beginning to end. It is thought, however, that she is too clever to be trapped into making any statement which would tend to convict her.

ALBANY, March 12.—The assembly codes committee today decided to report the anti-race track gambling bill "favorably without amendment."

ACH AND HENRY CLASH DURING RUEF HEARING

Had first been discussed before Judge Dooling in another branch of the court. Judge Lawrence said that he could take action in no case outside his own court. Ach said that Assistant District Attorney O'Garra was on hand and that Henry had stated that O'Garra was to look into the matter of cases and when he had ascertained how many there were the request of the defendant would be granted.

Not Ordering O'Garra.

"Did you say that I ordered O'Garra to ascertain how many there were of those cases?" asked Henry.

Ach said that he did not use the term "I am Mr. O'Garra's equal, not his superior. I do not instruct him to do things. He is an assistant like myself. I am his equal only," replied Henry.

"I don't think you are," said Ach jokingly.

"I mean," said Henry, "in the position as assistant which I hold. As for your opinion, I care nothing for it. It isn't worth anything."

As Henry spoke these words his voice increased in volume and his cheeks became almost blood red. Henry was evidently deeply stirred and it looked as if there was to come a rejoinder when Judge Lawrence interrupted, stating with firmness:

"I have no discussion of this kind here. I won't permit it."

No Place for It.

"This is not a discussion, your honor," said Ach.

"Then," said the court, "there is no place here for it."

Henry, however, was somewhat warm still, and declaring that his offer with respect to doing away with the duplicate indictments not having been appreciated by the defense, he would withdraw the same.

Ach then moved that, in view of the fact that the district attorney had stated his withdrawal of his offer, that Ruef be admitted to bail on his own recognizance in the sum of $100,000.

Judge Lawrence promptly denied the motion.

Admits He Tried to Induce Ruef to Change Testimony

SAN FRANCISCO, March 12.—The affidavit filed yesterday by Professor George Woodburn Bonnell, formerly of the University of California and an old teacher of Abraham Ruef, was, in effect, as he believed, that Abraham Ruef had not told the truth.

He avers that it was at his own suggestion that he visited Ruef while the latter was confined in the house on Fillmore street, and that he told Ruef that he came there of his own volition. He swears to having said to Ruef, "Now, Ruef, I want you to tell me the truth. You will not like, and while I am saying it you may ask me to leave the room or order me out."

Ruef said, "Yes, go ahead; I want to hear it," Bonnell declares he then said in substance:

"These people whose opinions I hear and whose collected opinions I try to give you do not believe that you are telling the truth to the prosecution and I don't think you are."

Ruef replied, "Professor Bonnell, I am telling the truth."

The affidavit then goes on to tell of other talks with Ruef in which he sought, as the prosecution was seeking, to make Ruef say things which Ruef himself declared were not true. In other words, he wanted Ruef to testify to facts which the imprisoned boss declared true and time again were absolute untruths.

Professor Bonnell swears to a long conversation with Ruef in which he alleges that on one occasion when he told the Rabbi that Ruef was not telling the truth, that the Rabbi said: "Ruef is a liar."

Former Mayor Schmitz Enjoys First Day of Liberty; Visits Mother

SAN FRANCISCO, March 12.—Former Mayor Eugene F. Schmitz thoroughly enjoyed his first day of liberty. It was his first free day in nine months and he made the most of it. After arising late at home and eating breakfast with his family, his first visit was to his aged mother. He spent more than an hour with her and later, in the day, after a long session with his counsel, he visited with friends.

"As usual I must refrain from making any statements for publication," he said. "I will consult my attorneys and maybe in a week or so I will have something to say."

"You are looking well, Mayor; how do you feel?" a friend interjected.

"Well, thank God I had a strong constitution, otherwise I would not have been able to go through what I did. It is strange, but I weigh the same—232 pounds. At last I lost four pounds from worry, but I regained them and am now feeling fine."

"Would you go into politics again, Mr. Schmitz?"

"Positively no. I am out of politics for all time. My friends have expressed themselves at it if I should assume the office of Mayor, but I have told them just as emphatically as I tell you now that I will never enter the field of politics again."

"Were you worried much throughout this trouble?" was asked.

"Of course I was worried, but I never doubted that I would ultimately win my liberty and I am just as confident that I will be acquitted of all these charges."

"You might say," interjected Mr. Campbell, "that is counsel never worried, as they knew it would come out all right."

ROBBED BY FRIEND, REPORTS TO POLICE

ALAMEDA, March 12.—William Joseph of 1066 Lincoln avenue, reported to the police last evening that his house had been entered and robbed during the day while the members of the family were absent.

Joseph said a gold ring, valued at $20 and a pocket watch at $12 had been taken.

Three hours later, when Joseph was going to bed, he discovered his missing jewelry wrapped in a handkerchief, tucked between the covers, where it had been placed by friends as a joke. They had obtained access to the Joseph house by climbing through a side window which had been left unfastened.

CHARGES ELECTRIC BOAT CO. BRIBED CONGRESSMEN

Lilley, Under Oath, Says an Organized Lobby Has Spent Money Like Water Influencing Legislation.

WASHINGTON, March 12.—The special committee appointed by the Cannon to investigate the charges made by Representative Lilley that undue efforts have been made by the Electric Boat Company to influence legislation, resumed its sittings today.

Lilley said that up to the present time his accusations have been solely against the Electric Boat Company and its predecessor, the Holland Company, and had covered the point that these companies had made an effort to influence legislation by Congress.

Lilley said he was not prepared to furnish the committee with the addresses of all witnesses whom he desired to have called. He said that whether money had been improperly used to secure legislation in the interest of the Electric Boat Company would be shown only by the examination of the officers, attorneys and agents of the company, and a careful scrutiny of the company's books, vouchers, check stubs and accounts.

"I now insist," said Lilley, "that you summon as witnesses Isaac Rice, president of the Electric Boat Company; Silas B. Frost, vice-president; Maurice E. Barnett, treasurer; August Treadwell, assistant treasurer; and that they be required to lay before the committee documentary evidence in their possession. The calling of these witnesses is necessary to disclose the methods used by the company to secure legislation and money disbursed by it."

Says, Bribe Congressmen.

"The witnesses I have named to the committee are nearly all officers, attorneys, agents and representatives of the Electric Boat Company or have been such and they are the persons who have been engaged in the proper efforts to influence Congressional action. They are what the courts always recognize as reluctant and adverse witnesses and the facts resting in their knowledge alone cannot be fully brought to light except by a careful and thorough examination of each witness by an attorney qualified to conduct such an examination."

"I do not think that my testimony should be taken at this time, for by so doing you would advise the parties charged with improper actions in influencing Congressional action in such a manner as would enable them to prepare for a possible defeat of the purpose of the investigation. If you now order me to do so, I will take the stand as a witness."

Boutell's Queer Move.

Chairman Boutell, here before the first public indication of where the investigating committee stands and the stated purpose to make the "investigation" a "whitewash" became apparent when Boutell said: "The business of the committee must necessarily be confined to the conducting of an investigation. The members of the committee are not here as prosecutors nor will they permit Lilley to assume the role of a prosecutor. Witnesses will be called as the necessity for their presence is developed by the progress of the inquiry."

Lilley then was sworn as a witness, took the stand and made the following sensational statement under oath:

"I propose to show that for several years prior to the Leslie investigation, the Holland Boat Company and its successor, the Electric Boat Company, maintained in Washington an organized lobby for the purpose of influencing legislative appropriations in favor of the submarine boat building by that company and that it had under annual retainer C. E. Cresswell, General Eppa Hunton, former United States Senator Marlon Butler, S. C. McNeil, Dr. W. R. Kerr and others."

"That for several years Edith B. Frost, vice-president of the company, has been a continuous visitor at Washington during Congressional sessions and has spent large sums of money in furnishing entertainment to members of Congress, his expenses along this line amounting to thousands of dollars."

"That the Senate amendment to the appropriation bill of March 2, 1927, was prepared and drafted by the attorney for the Electric Boat Company for the purpose of securing the appropriation for the construction of submarines with the intention to eliminate competition in submarine construction and to prevent the Secretary of the Navy

BONDSMEN GIVE UP ACCUSED MAN

William Hammond Jr. and William Zingg Won't Take Chances on Burt O. Clark

ALAMEDA, March 12.—Burt O. Clark, who was arrested on complaint of President B. J. Holt of the Civic League and charged with having sold liquor without a license in the restaurant he conducted in the rear of William Zingg's resort at 1421 Park street, was surrendered to police today by his bondsmen, William Hammond Jr. and William Zingg. Each bondsman was liable for $1500, there being five different charges pending against Clark for alleged violation of the liquor and gambling ordinances.

ELECTRIC CAR KILLS BOY AS HE ESCAPES MOTHER

Carl Gard, the nine-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Gard of 437 Avenue 12, was run over and instantly killed early last evening by a north-bound car on Telegraph avenue. The body was taken to the morgue where an inquest will be held. The mother is in a prostrate condition as the result of the accident.

The lad dodged a south-bound car only to run directly in front of the car which crushed out his life.

SCORES FATHER FOR NOT PROVIDING FOR FAMILY

Ed Brewer of 1167 Webster street, who was charged with failure to provide for his wife and minor child, came in for a scolding at the hands of Police Judge Smith this morning and was ordered to pay $5 a week toward the support of his family.

MONTAGUE MERCHANT IS DEAD IN NORTH

John H. Walbridge, son-in-law of Assistant City Attorney W. H. O'Brien, and one of the most prominent men in Solano county, died this morning at Montague, seven miles from Yreka. O'Brien left this morning for Montague after receiving a telegram notifying him of the death. Walbridge for many years was in the general merchandise business in Yreka and of late had his business interests at Montague. He leaves a widow and two children.

PLEADED GUILTY AND EXPECTED CLEMENCY

W. T. Toole, an insurance adjuster, who pleaded guilty to a charge of passing a fictitious check for $15 on Charles Newman, was permitted by Judge Ogden today to change his plea. He will stand trial on the charge.

Toole told the court that when he had pleaded guilty he had done so with the understanding that he would be placed on probation, and was very much surprised when District Attorney Brown, opposed this arrangement of his deputy.

As to passing the fictitious check, he said that he had often done the same thing before when he had no funds in the bank, but knew that he would have money there the next day.

POLICE LOOKING FOR 12-YEAR-OLD CHILD

Albert Dietrich, 12 years old, son of Mr. and Mrs. Karl Dietrich of 1539 Ninth avenue, San Francisco, has disappeared from home and is causing much anxiety on the part of his parents, who have placed the matter in the hands of the police and detectives on both sides of the bay.

INVESTIGATE ALLEGED S. P. REBATING CASES

SAN FRANCISCO, March 12.—The State Railroad Commission continued today its investigation of the charge of rate manipulation against the Southern Pacific Company.

The morning session was taken up with establishing the allegation that the Pacific Hardware and Steel Company, and Baker and Hamilton, had been granted branch houses in competition with Los Angeles firms.

Attorney General Webb contended that other firms could not compete at a profit with firms enjoying the special rate, while G. W. Luce, general freight agent for the road, who was put on the stand, declared that the reason no other firms enjoyed the same provisions as the Pacific Hardware Company was that they had never tried to enter the Los Angeles field.

AGED ARTIST BURIED AMID MANY FLOWERS

BERKELEY, March 12.—The funeral of Helen Tanner Brodt took place from her home in Berkeley yesterday. Her husband, three surviving children, and many of her old friends were present and listened to the beautiful words spoken by the Rev. Mr. McCash of the First Christian Church of Berkeley. Beautiful flowers were in abundance, kindly brought by those who had known her many years as an artist whose reputation has been long established. The interment which was private took place at "The Heights" in Upper Fruitvale, which place is the home of "The Poet of the Sierras," Jouquin Miller, and overlooks the city of Oakland, San Francisco Bay and the Golden Gate in the distance. The Rev. Mr. Wilson of East Oakland officiated at this, her final resting place. Mrs. Brodt was born seventy years ago in the Township of Moriah Essex county, New York State and came to California in the early sixties.

FUGITIVE'S WIFE BEFORE GRAND JURY

Mrs. John Dalzell Robertson
Weeps During Ordeal on Stand.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 12.—Mrs. John Dalzell Robertson, wife of the fugitive assistant treasurer of the defunct California Safe Deposit and Trust Company, was on the witness stand for two hours this morning before the grand jury which is investigating the failure of the corporation. She went through a terrible ordeal and was on the verge of collapse when she left the jury room. Her cheeks were wet with tears.

Mrs. Robertson was discovered at her Greenwich street home, from which she and her husband fled to New York several months ago and to which she returned quietly two days ago. She came back to look after their property interests, while her husband remains a fugitive in Scotland.

Shortly after their flight it was learned that Robertson had hypothecated the bonds of the Colton estate which had been left in the hands of Walter J. Bartlett as trustee. A contest over the Colton will is being waged in New York.

TELEGRAPHIC BREVITIES

Populists Convened: Topeka.—Few delegates were present this morning when State Chairman George W. Hanna of Clay Center, called the Populist State convention to order. The purpose of the convention is to elect delegates and alternates to the St. Louis National Convention, April 2. The naming of State officers and candidates for Congress are also to be arranged for.

Yaqui Kill Mexican: El Paso, Tex.—Dr. E. J. Ackerman arrived at Douglas, Ariz., yesterday and reported that Yaqui Indians had been killed and killed two Mexican men, Oquito, Sonora, in a region inhabited by many Americans and hispanic disturbed by Indians. The prefect of Sonora, with 25 Mexican troops, has taken the field against the Indians.

Indicted Banker Dies: New York.—John O. Jenkins, a Brooklyn banker who, with his three sons, was indicted as a result of the banking investigation which followed the recent financial panic, died at Seacott, N. J., today. Death was due to paralysis.

Miners in Session: Indianapolis.—The national convention of the United Mine workers of America met today in Tompkins Hall to agree upon a course of action because of the failure of the operators and miners of the central competitive field to agree upon a joint wage conference to fix a scale in place of the present one, which expires April 1.

Bavarians Celebrate: Munich.—Prince Luitpold, regent of Bavaria, celebrated the eighty-seventh anniversary of his birth today amid a brilliant gathering of the Bavarian nobility. He received telegraphic congratulations from Emperor William and the heads of the reigning houses of the empire, as well as felicitations from abroad. Later there was an immense military parade, in which the entire garrison of Munich took part.

Anheuser Kidnapped: Butte, Mont.—James McCarthy, known as the "Anheuser Kid," who shot and mortally wounded a policeman in Goldfield a year ago and was acquitted on the ground of self-defense, was kidnapped here last night and taken to Nevada by private detectives in the employ of the Goldfield Consolidated Mining Company, which charges McCarthy with high-grading.

Vote Against: Frats Chicago.—Members of fraternities and societies commonly known as Greek letter societies, will not be allowed to attend high schools in Chicago after the close of the present school year, according to a rule adopted by the Chicago Board of Education last night. The vote was 16 to 3 in favor of the rule.

Nearly Asphyxiated: While Sound Asleep.—SAN FRANCISCO, March 12.—Charles Schumann, a clerk who lives at 310 Eddy street, narrowly escaped death by gas asphyxiation through an accident early this morning.

Schönberg, who rooms in the same house, heard screams coming from his friend's room and on entering found the gas escaping from the partially opened jet.

He roused Schumann and succeeded in reviving him. Later he was removed to the Central Emergency hospital for treatment.

Royal Neighbors Select Delegates to Chicago Convention.

The State Convention of the Royal Neighbors, which was held in Loring hall yesterday, met again last night in Woodman's hall, where an interesting drill was given by Golden Gate Camp No. 3228.

One of the features of the convention was the election of four delegates from this State, who are to represent California at the convention of the Supreme camp of Royal Neighbors, which will be held in Chicago May 10. The delegates are Mrs. L. Case, supreme marshal; Mrs. E. L. Hamill of Los Angeles; Mrs. Ida Hudson of San Francisco; Mrs. Mary Mills of San Jose.

"RAFFLES" INSPIRES BOY BURGLARS, HE DECLARES Judge Ogden Locates Cause of Crimes

"I believe that the publication of the story 'Raffles' and its dramatization and presentation on the stage have had more to do with the commission of youthful burglaries than any other cause of late," said Judge Ogden today in the cases of George Oscar Young and William Tullock, Alameda boys of the age of eighteen, who pleaded guilty to burglary and asked for probation.

In the case of Young, probation was obtained with difficulty, as it was shown that he had been placed on probation once before, in San Francisco. W. J. Gorham, former president of the Alameda City Council, made a strong plea for him and promised to send the boy to sea on a sailing vessel and to take a personal interest in his welfare.

"The boy is weak-willed," said Gorham, "and easily led, by either criminal or good people. I know that if you give him a chance to make a man of him I can do it. But if you don't, and send him to a penitentiary, you are simply making another criminal."

The boy's mother testified that her husband was dead, and that the boy was wild, staying out at night, and refusing to obey her. Judge Ogden placed him on probation for seven years on the understanding that Gorham would send him to sea and keep him straight.

Young's companion, Tullock, was entrusted to Probation Officer Ruess until June 15, when further disposition will be made of his case.

Ruess reported that the boys were addicted to the excessive use of cigarettes, having smoked 500 between them in nine days while they were in the county jail.

The crime to which they pleaded guilty was the entering of the drug store of G. H. Weaver, in Alameda, and stealing $15.

WITH $300,000 CASH
BANK INCORPORATES

The First Trust and Savings Bank has filed its articles of incorporation with a capital stock of $300,000, fully paid up.

This bank will be closely allied with the First National Bank, and will occupy quarters in the new First National Bank building, at Broadway and Fourteenth street. It will be a savings bank primarily.

Nine well-known capitalists, most of them already prominent in banking circles, are the directors. They are E. Herron, Henry C. Morris, William H. Taylor, A. L. Stone, L. C. Morehouse, E. W. Runyon, P. E. Bowles, L. G. Burpee and Wallace Everson. Of the capital stock the first seven directors have subscribed $40,000 each, and the other two $10,000 each.

REFUSAL TO MARRY COSTS DOCTOR MONEY

SALT LAKE, March 12.—Dr. William A. McHenry of San Francisco will not leave to explain in court why he promised Edith Evans, an English nurse, that he would marry her and then refused to do so. The case has been settled out of court, the doctor agreeing to pay Miss Evans enough money to satisfy her wounded feelings and thus keep from the public the details of the scandal. The amount to be paid Miss Evans has not been made public. She sued for $50,000.

MARYVILLE, March 12.—Six persons dead, two badly injured and one building destroyed was the result of a fire in Chinatown at First and Oak streets, in this city, at 4 o'clock this morning. The dead are all Chinese. The building was partially consumed and Chinatown had a narrow escape from destruction.

EVELYN'S ANNULMENT COMPLAINT SENT TO THAW

Millionaire Prisoner in Mad-
House for Criminals Receives Papers.

NEW YORK, March 12.—Permission to serve the summons and complaint of Evelyn K. Thaw, personally upon Thaw, who is a prisoner at the State asylum for the criminal insane at Matteawan, was granted today by Justice O'Grady in the Supreme Court. The papers in the case were taken to Matteawan this afternoon.

PASADENA, March 12.—Endeavoring to keep his identity secret and refusing himself to all callers, J. C. Thaw, brother of Harry Thaw, arrived here today and went to the Hotel Green, where apartments had been reserved for him. He registered for J. C. Thaw and wife of Waterloo, Ill., was assigned to his rooms and disappeared. It is said that Mrs. William Thaw will join her son here.

Spigotty?

"Sam" Blythe went down for us, and shook hands with the Panama Canal. He is a different kind of reporter—is Blythe, and he has given us a different kind of story.

The first article is "Life in Spigotty Land." It doesn't tell much about the Canal itself, not much about gradients and cubic feet and plumb lines; it's mostly about the cheerful social side of the life down there.

Says he, "Isthmus moonlight would make a man make love to a cigar sign." He tells about one of their baseball games, where a crowd was "enthusiastic to the degree of temporary insanity and impartially joshing everybody in sight." He also heaves a brick at Uncle Sam's Hotel. "The United States can go on record as 'conducting a hotel where positively less food for the price is served than any other place in the universe.'"

Social life on the Isthmus is regulated according to your pay. If you earn $300 a month you snub the people who only get $250, and smile graciously on those who get $325.

Altogether, Panama and Panamanians are an interesting and interesting lot. The people who are there mostly want to stay, and needn't stay unless they want to.

But read the whole article. It is only one good choice out of thirty-two pages of interesting stuff in this week's issue of THE SATURDAY EVENING POST, now on sale.

STUDENTS FAIL TO PULL OFF FIGHT SHOW

Presence of Police Stops Bouts—Polytechnic Club Will Incorporate—Promise Scraps
Will Be Held.

BERKELEY, March 12.—There was no boxing at the entertainment of the Polytechnic Club last night. There were bouts in plenty, introduced in their turn by Sam Berger from the ring, but the presence of a deputy sheriff and three policemen was sufficient to deter the college students and the club leaders from any attempt to carry out the program.

The word had gone forth from District Attorney Brown in the afternoon that no "boxing" exhibition could be carried out, except by an incorporated athletic club, and the student realized that they were beaten in the first round with the law. Over 200 people gathered in the Allston Way Skating Rink in anticipation of a conflict between students and police. The college colony was loyal and congratulated the chief and encouraged anything from a song to a bow from a prize fighter.

Explanations of the absence of the fight star features were forthcoming. Secretary Tom Thompson of the Polytechnic Club told how it happened. He said that the district attorney and the clergymen had jointly defied the plans to hold a boxing carnival. Thompson promised that there would be another show in two weeks, at which all the prize-winning heroes promised would be seen.

Edmond O'Neill, faculty representative on the executive committee, declared that "the University believed in legitimate exhibitions of all kinds." He declared that "there was nothing degrading about seeing two expert boxers spar for points, the clergymen of Berkeley to the contrary."

"Mike (Twin)" Sings.
Walter Christie, the trainer, spoke the same vein. It was then up to S. Berger, as master of ceremonies, to do the stunt of introducing the fighters. He was present by Jimmy Britt, who, learning late in the afternoon of the attitude of District Attorney Brown, remained on the other side of the bay.

Abbe and Monte Atty, Frank Raphael, Mike Sullivan and others made their bow and retired, with the exception of Sullivan, who sang several songs as his share of the show.

President E. W. Bray and Secretary Thompson are confident that they will be able to pull the show within two weeks or so. They say they will incorporate and thus avoid the legal difficulties pointed out by the district attorney. There are others who are not so confident as the Polytechnics. They believe they have in their power to stop any such exhibition. It will be necessary to get the permission of the board and Chief Vollmer for the program, as now mapped out for the supplementary exhibition, and the opposing forces are preparing to bring pressure to bear on the authorities to refuse any permit.

BEGS MERCY FOR ERRING HUSBAND

ALAMEDA, March 12.—D. J. Carlton, who claims D. O. Mills as his uncle, was sentenced by City Justice R. E. Tappan yesterday to pay a fine of $40 for having smoked opium in a joint on Park street near Lincoln avenue, that was conducted, the police say, by S. Herbert. Carlton is a carpenter fifty years of age and has a wife and child. His spouse was present when he appeared for sentence and made a pitiful plea that leniency be shown her erring husband. The police did not have the money with which to pay the fine imposed and was given until today to obtain the cash.

Herbert, the alleged proprietor of the opium den, was arrested with Carlton. He was found guilty; sentence was suspended and Herbert was ordered to leave Alameda. He was given to understand that if he was seen here again soon he would be committed to jail county jail. Herbert promised that he would give the city a wide berth for a long time and that his old haunts would know him no more.

ALAMEDA SOCIETY

ALAMEDA, March 12.—Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Swain, former residents of this city and now living in the State of Washington, are visiting friends here.

Mrs. W. W. Case entertained the members of the Players' Club at her home on Santa Clara avenue Tuesday. "Fenris the Wolf" was read and discussed by Mrs. Brecken.

Student Is Lost.

Jerome M. Politzer, a student at Stanford University, was the host Saturday night at a union of the Delta Kappa honor society of the Alameda High School. The affair was held at the Politzer home on Pacific avenue. Violin solos were rendered by Raymond Gott. Eugene Canallio delighted the assemblage with piano selections. The reunion included with a banquet at which Politzer was the toastmaster. The Delta Kappa honor society numbers among its members Edwin M. Ods, Stephen F. Ods, Eugene A. Canallio, Frank A. Rose, Russell P. Baker, Leslie P. Baker, Jerome M. Politzer, Raymond A. Gott, Byron H. Paul, Fred M. Crawford, Harry C. Nassou, Sydney N. Sheppard, Gerald J. Brooks, Dan S. Wise, Edwin S. Higgins, William A. Foster, Laurence S. Lynch, John Miller, Harry Johnson, George Fallace and Chester N. Jamison.

Death of Mrs. Blyman.—Mrs. Antonio Blyman, wife of the late Edward Blyman and mother of Edward Blyman Jr. and Mrs. L. C. Buslack, died last night at her home, 811 Central avenue. She was a native of Germany, 82 years of age and had lived in Alameda for thirty-five years.

Placed Under Arrest. John Gardner was arrested last night on a complaint of Peter Dea Santa, proprietor of a restaurant on Park street, who alleges that Gardner went to the eating place intoxicated and proceeded to wreck the interior.

BLUE AND GOLD STAFF CELEBRATES CLOSE OF WORK

Informal Dance Given by Collegians at Delta
Gamma House.

WALTER STERN

BERKELEY, March 11.—Members of the staff of the Blue and Gold hosts last night at an informal dance at which many of the prominent college world figures were present. The affair was partly in the nature of a celebration to mark the end of the work of preparing the college annual for the year.

All the manuscript and other literary and illustrative material is now ready for the printer.

The function took place in the Delta Gamma Sorority house. The committee in charge was made up of Walter Stern, Mrs. Anna McCandless, Miss Mary Phillips, Miss Edith Carewe and Arnold Chapman.

WILL HOLD TRYOUTS FOR DEBATING TEAMS

BERKELEY, March 12.—The preliminary tryouts for the intercollegiate debating teams to meet Stanford and Washington will be held March 13 and the finals on March 23. There will be a team of three men selected for the Stanford and two for the Washington debate. There will also be one alternate for each team. Both debates will take place April 13 and Berkeley will have the affirmative in each contest. The question to be debated is:

"Resolved, That labor unions are justified in insisting through the use of all lawful means at their disposal, on the closed shop."

The girl who wants to make a name for herself can seldom make a loaf of bread.

BERKELEY BREVITIES

Graduate Appointed Manager.—H. A. Case, a graduate of the university with the class of 1906, has been appointed general manager for the Western Electric Company in Seattle and will leave Berkeley Saturday night to take up his duties. Case, during his college career was prominent in athletics. He was attached to the transport service during the Spanish war. Since his graduation he has lived in Berkeley and is a member of the Bachelor's Club.

School Census Marshal.—A. H. McDonald has been named school census marshal. His assistants are: C. H. Allen, I. F. Thompson and O. F. Snedegar. The pay of the marshal is $6 per day and assistants $5.

Want More Car Line.—The residents on the hillside of North Berkeley are circulating a petition to have the Euclid avenue car line extended from its present terminus at Far north as the town line. Many of the people it is said now walk from four to eighteen blocks to get transit facilities. Dr. Walter E. Schott is in charge of the movement.

Appointed Inspectors.—C. A. Thompson and J. P. Vining have been appointed by Dr. J. D. Long and the citizens' health committee as sanitary inspectors. They have yet to be given police powers by the trustees.

Spanish Meeting.—The El Circulo Hispanico of the University discussed "Early Days in California" at the La Copa O'oro house, 2422 Channing way last night.

Henry to Talk.—Francis J. Henry is slated to give an address before the League of the Republic, a college organization, this evening. Professor G. H. Boke will preside.

German Lecture.—Professor J. H. Senger delivered an address before the College Deutsche Verein last night at 1321 Bay View place.

No Change in Street Name.—The town trustees have rescinded their resolution changing the name of Bowditch street to Hillegas avenue in deference to the requests of many citizens who would have the street known as of old in respect to the memory of a pioneer.

To Have Visitors' Day.—The manual training department of the public schools has planned a series of visitors' days at the various buildings for the benefit of the public and the information of parents.

WIFE'S DIVORCE SUIT SURPRISES HUSBAND

SAN FRANCISCO, March 12.—Attorney E. B. Gehring in Oakland has prepared a motion to have a suit for divorce filed in Chico, Butte county, by Mrs. Leulita McEwen against Frank A. McEwen, transferred to the Alameda county courts. Gehring has been retained by McEwen. Who is a well known railroad man, and declares that he proposes vigorously to contest the action.

Some months ago Mrs. McEwen announced that she was going to attend the wedding of her sister in Chico. The next day McEwen heard of her, according to Gehring, was in the form of a summons informing him that his wife had filed suit for divorce against him on the ground of wilful neglect and desertion.

In the complaint she asks for the return of wedding presents given the couple and valued at several hundred dollars.

Society ...IN... Berkeley

BERKELEY, March 12.—The Theat Delta Chi men were hosts last night at a dance at their home on Durant avenue to about fifty guests. Mesdames De Leon, Williamson, Countryman, Clinch and Stewart assisted the men in receiving. Supper was served after the dance.

The members of the Berkeley Piano Club met yesterday morning with Mrs. Arthur Rickard and enjoyed an interesting musical program. This club is the largest and most prominent musical organization in Berkeley. Miss Maud Wellendorf is president.

Amaranth Gives Farce.—College Court No. 19, Royal and Exalted Degree of the Amaranth, presented an amusing farce, entitled "Marplot," at an entertainment last night. Those who assisted in the cast were Miss Nettie Meek, Miss Ada Lockett, Mrs. Shurtliff, Mrs. J. H. Wood and Mrs. Reed. Other numbers on the program were flute solos by C. S. Merrill, accompanied by Miss Pulver, and vocal solos by Mr. Lansing, with Mrs. Lansing as accompanist. The program was concluded by a charade.

The Waunakee Whist Club will be entertained Saturday evening, Mrs. H. W. Taylor at her home on Walnut street. This club is one of the oldest card clubs in Berkeley and meets fortnightly in the evening, so that the men may also attend. The membership numbers twenty, the majority of them being North Berkeley people. Mr. and Mrs. Fred F. Connor, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Langley and Mr. and Mrs. James Hunt are among the members.

Miss Mary Campbell will be hostess at cards this evening at her home on Webster street.

Mrs. A. P. Buckingham has taken apartments at the Berkeley Inn for the remainder of the season.

Mrs. William Colby was hostess at dinner last evening at her home on Channing way in honor of Miss Hazel King of San Francisco.

Mr. and Mrs. William Cameron, who have been residing in Berkeley since the fire, have recently taken possession of a handsome new home on College avenue and Parker street.

Mr. and Mrs. B. Richardson have been among recent visitors at Carmel-by-the-Sea, where they spent several days last week.

Mrs. R. L. Reed was hostess at a reception this afternoon at her home on Channing way in honor of Mrs. Buck and her daughter of Yacumba, who are visiting at the Reeds home. Mrs. Reed has invited her friends in Berkeley and Oakland to meet her guests.

The first postoffice, established in 1464, was a private scheme, and paid well.

WOMEN FAINT AS CAR JUMPS RAILS

Auto in Path of Derailed Vehicle
Tossed Across Street.

BERKELEY, March 12.—Just what line line to leave the track at the corner of Shattuck avenue and Addison street yesterday afternoon has not yet been determined.

When the front trucks jumped the rails directly in front of the offices of the Mason McDuffie Company and running thirty feet over the street, came up against an automobile belonging to Raymond H. Bailey, president of the Berkeley Real Estate Exchange. The machine could not withstand the shock and was hurled almost clear across Addison street.

G. R. Barner of 1425 Myrtle street, Oakland, a passenger, was thrown from the rear platform and badly bruised about the face. Two or three women fainted but recovered as soon as they realized that the car had come to a standstill.

ALAMEDA BREVITIES

Hoodlums Beat Chinaman.—Joe Lin, a Chinese cook, was badly beaten last night by a gang of young hoodlums while he was standing in front of the Elite theater on Park street and Lincoln avenue.

Heart Clot Caused Death.—An autopsy performed by Dr. Maurice W. Brown upon the body of Mrs. Katherine Waltz, who died Tuesday night, revealed the cause of death to have been a blood clot in the heart. The husband of the deceased was in Lake county and word has been sent him informing him of the demise of his wife.

Last Rites for Pioneer.—The funeral of the late Joseph Beach, an old-time Californian, who passed away Monday at the age of 92 years, was held from a local undertaking establishment yesterday afternoon. Services were conducted by Rev. J. W. McCluskey of the Santa Clara Avenue Methodist Episcopal Church, assisted by Rev. F. D. Boyard, formerly pastor of the First Methodist Episcopal Church, and now editor of the California Christian Advocate.

Mrs. Vogt's Mother Dies.—Mrs. Susanna Miller Smith, mother of Mrs. Theodore Vogt, wife of the musician and composer, died Monday at the home of her daughter on Lafayette street. For four years Mrs. Smith was an invalid. She came to California in the early fifties and for many years lived in San Francisco. Mrs. Smith took up her residence in Alameda sixteen years ago. The funeral and interment will be private.

Gasoline Roller Arrives.—Street Superintendent W. M. Frodden has received a new ten-ton gasoline roller which is to be given a trial on street work. If the machine proves a success it will be purchased by the city. There has been some doubt as to whether gasoline rollers as good a motive power for rollers as steam. The tests to be given the gasoline contrivance are expected to settle the question.

Church to Give Concert.—Alameda Council, Royal Arcanum, will give a grand concert at the Unitarian Church, Alameda, on Thursday evening, nineteenth instant. An exceptionally fine program by the Hawaiian Glee Club, assisted by Roy Folger has been arranged. Tickets may be secured at the principal drug stores, members of the council, or at the door on the evening of the entertainment.

Never Again Will Lower Prices on Reliable Pianos Be Obtainable. Investigate This!

WE ARE CLOSING OUT FOUR OF OUR PIANO STORES—HAVE BUT A FEW DAYS IN WHICH TO DO IT. PROFIT IS OUT OF ALL CONSIDERATION NOW.

The present financial situation makes it impossible for banks to render adequate assistance to any commercial undertaking. It will be seen that we sell annually over $5,000,000 worth of musical instruments, of which only 15 per cent is sold for spot cash, that even with a capital that now exceeds $1,200,000, it is impossible for us to handle this business without access to substantial banking facilities East of the Coast.

Therefore, we are compelled to close four of our stores and stop expenses. With the opening of our new market street establishment we shall centralize our San Francisco capital into one big organization. We have but a few days left. Quick action is needed. Here we offer reliable new standard pianos at the lowest prices ever seen in print.

All four stores open every evening.

HIGH GRADE PIANOS $245.
All the remaining highest grade pianos as here shown (No. 1) are now $245.00, $250 cash and $8 monthly. These instruments have never before been sold for less than $400, nor will they ever again be obtainable for this price. The price for $245.00 and $117. Strictly modern and warranted. Please see illustration marked "1."

KIMBALL BABY GRAND, $365.
A superb mahogany finished Baby Grand, the square of any manufacturer, the regular $350 style, now $365. Payments $12 monthly secures them. Please see illustration marked "2."

STEINWAY GRAND, $535.
Steinway Grands are usually priced at $675, yes, $750. We have one for $535 and a prior grand Steinway, the latter but slightly used, for $587. Please see illustration marked "3."

CHICKERING GRAND, $555.
A superb little Chickering Baby Grand, the finest product of the Chickering factory, now at half the usual price. Please see illustration marked "4."

KNABE UPRIGHTS, $252, AND SEVERAL MORE KNABE UPRIGHT PIANOS, can hardly be sold from new; most of them were evolved in part payment now for $252, $264, $285. You will surely find them prices for double the money elsewhere.

Numerous Steinway uprights, $218, $260, $278; late models. Also several mahogany Chickering and $250, $252, mahogany at corresponding reductions, and an Everett at $212, and many others. Cash or easy payments.

WINTHROP UPRIGHTS, $170.
Winthrop uprights have been advertised by another firm at $185. Used ones and fire damaged ones were advertised by them as exceptional bargains at $170. In this sale brand new ones in splendid mahogany cases, $170. The Winthrop is warranted and can be had on payments as small as $6 monthly. Please see illustration marked "5."

HAND-MADE ART HAZELTONS.
The aristocrat of finest pianos—the Hazelton. The most costly upright made—superb mechanism and most magnificent of cases. You can surely afford even a Hazelton at these sale prices. Please see illustration marked "6."

FINE $480 KIMBALL UPRIGHTS, $228 AND UP.
The dainty Kimball style "school piano," most popular of all fine American makes. Present reduced prices range from $228 upwards. Please see illustration marked "7."

TRUE "MISSION" STYLE AUTO-PIANOS.
Several hand-made Mission-style Autopianos are included in this sale. They are in the natural oak and will be finished in the desired color. Under no circumstances are Autopianos sold below established retail values. Nevertheless, these great special hand-made instruments will make inducements. Cash or payments. Please see illustration marked "8."

Pianolas, Angelus, Cecilians, Etc.
Genuine Pianolas, Cecilians, Angelus—instruments that are better than for less than $125.00, go now for $55, $106 and $118. Name your own terms. Please see illustration marked "9."

SEVERAL HAND-MADE MISSION-STYLE AUTOPIANOS are included in this sale. They are in the natural oak and will be finished in the desired color. OLD RAILROADER GETS LAST CALL

David W. Hitchcock, U. P.
Passenger Agent for 25 Years, Dies.

BERKELEY, March 12.—David W. Hitchcock, one of the oldest railway men in the United States, and for over a quarter of a century passenger agent of the Union Pacific in San Francisco, died last night at his home, 2509 Stuart street, of acute intestinal trouble, after three days' illness. He was 77 years of age and a member of California Commandery, Knights Templar.

Mrs. Hitchcock, his aged widow, is in a serious condition and may follow her husband to the grave. She has been suffering from a dislocated hip for the last six weeks.

Hitchcock will be buried tomorrow afternoon from the undertaking parlors of Jameson & Nichols.

RAISE SALARY OF LETTER CARRIERS

WASHINGTON, March 12.—Persistent assaults on the postoffice appropriation bill in the House today resulted in amplification of that measure in many important particulars. The carriers finally won their long fight for $1200 salaries when an amendment by Mr. Goebel of Ohio, granting the same, was adopted.

The House also allowed an additional $25,000 for clerks in third-class offices where the salaries of the postmasters range from $1600 to $2000 and $15,000 additional for contract stations.

Prohibitionists also had their say, when the bill prohibiting the transmission through the mails of intoxicating liquors was later modified so as to include cocaine and its derivatives.

President Roosevelt has directed Herbert Knox Smith of the Bureau of Corporations to investigate the methods of stock trading, with a view to furnishing the basis of possible future legislation regulating such practices.

ISSUE CALL FOR $250,000 BONDS

Will Hold Election to Provide for $1000 and $250 Certificates.

BERKELEY, March 12.—The formal call for the $250,000 school bond election was made this morning. The election will be held April. The call provides that the bonds be issued in $1000 and $250 certificates, which are to be numbered consecutively, the $1000 bonds from 1 to 40 and the $250 bonds from 40 to 50. Five series of such members will be issued, comprising $50,000 for each series. The redemption of the bonds is called for at the rate of 10 per cent, five of each denomination, which will necessitate that the town buy them back at the rate of $6250 per year. The numbers will be redeemed consecutively, that is, number 1 and 41 the first year after the issue, 2 and 42 the second year, and so on until all are redeemed at the end of 40 years.

SOPHOMORE WOMEN TO SERVE A LUNCH

BERKELEY, March 12.—The women of the sophomore class are planning to make the Charter Day lunch at the college an elaborate affair. It will be served on small tables in the handball court at Hearst hall and will be followed by a dance. The committee in charge of the affair is Miss Hazel Donohoe, Miss Lucile Kelly, Miss Bernice Kohl, Claire Harriot, Miss Rose Weiss, Miss Helen Hill and Miss Bess Clark.

A. B. CHASE PLAYER PIANO
Highest Artistic Effects Are Possible Upon the A. B.
Chase Player-Piano

—It takes patience and practice to gain perfection in anything, but in nothing is success more certain as a result of painstaking application than in the operation of the A. B. Chase Player-Piano. —It has been demonstrated time and again to the entire satisfaction of some of the finest singers, pianists, violinists and cellists in the U. S., before critical musical audiences, in highly classical programs, that the A. B. Chase Player-Piano can be used as an accompanist with greatest success. —No more severe test could be given a player-piano, and if these are facts—and they have been proven! isn't it wise to investigate the A. B. Chase Player-Piano before purchasing any other make? —Sold for cash or terms or on fair exchange for other similar instruments or old pianos.

City or Town and State.....

Professor Bunnell's Confession.

Professor George Woodbury Bunnell, who was one of Ruef's instructors at the University of California, has butted into the graft prosecution with an affidavit which proves him to be a garrulous old busybody. The only fact of importance disclosed by Professor Bunnell's affidavit is that the prosecution was vainly trying by intimidation, persuasion and promises of immunity to induce Ruef to change his story to fit the purposes of Spreckels, Heney and Burns.

With naïve innocence the old gentleman confesses that he repeatedly urged Ruef to swear on the witness stand to a state of facts which Ruef contended were false. He cheerfully acknowledges that he urged his former pupil to make oath as a witness against other men to what Ruef kept insisting would be perjured lies. No doubt the worthy pedagogue's motives were benevolent, but he does not appear to realize that he was trying to tamper with a witness and induce the commission of perjury.

Doubtless the professor had convinced himself that his impressions rather than Ruef's statements represented the actual facts, but he apparently never paused to reflect that if Ruef was telling the truth Professor Bunnell was urging him to perjure himself and commit the intolerable wrong of sending innocent men to State prison. With garrulous candor he reiterates his belief that Ruef has not told the truth, thus trying to make his impressions stand for the testimony he vainly tried to suborn. Yet he probably deems himself a good man honestly striving to serve the cause of morality and justice.

Such men as Professor Bunnell are the despair of philosophers. Their consciences and judgment go in opposite directions. They are like the Caliph Omar, who burned the famous library at Alexandria because the books therein did not teach the religious doctrines to which he was fanatically devoted. They are the kind of pious criminals who in former days were addicted to burning men's bodies with the benevolent intent of saving their souls and advancing the glory of God. Having imbibed the impression that certain men were guilty of heinous crimes he urged Ruef with the voluble earnestness of senile conviction to swear to his suspicions.

The Bulletin pictures all the Justices of the Supreme Court as instruments of wrong, corruption and predation. The Bulletin's conception of an ideal court would be a bench made up of such material as Dunne and Lawlor and Judge Dooling, who is conducting an ex parte inquiry into the value, cost and extent of certain water rights owned and bonded by William S. Tevis under pretense of presiding at a trial for criminal libel. Such jurists fulfill the Bulletin's idea of the real thing. They are, and that is why decent people regard them with scorn and aversion. To present such cattle as being the moral superiors of men like Chief Justice Beatty is an insult to popular intelligence and an affront to the judiciary of the entire nation. In presiding at the mock prosecution of Fremont Older by Fremont Older, Dooling is doing the work cut out for him by E. P. E. Troy. But what would become of justice, law and decency with the higher courts presided over by the Bulletin type of judge? The editorials of the Bulletin would be the law of the land and men like Fremont Older, E. J. Livernash, E. P. E. Troy, Rudolph Spreckels and William J. Burns would dominate the administration of justice and hold the lives and property of the community in the hollows of their hands. It would be a delightful condition from the standpoint of an anarchist.

Here's to the Oregon.

Just ten years ago today the battleship Oregon started on her long voyage around the Horn to join the squadron of fighting vessels on the Atlantic coast. She was then considered one of the greatest of all the world's fighting machines and her trip was part of the history of the Spanish war. Things have changed a good deal since then and the good old vessel was not considered sufficiently in the class of the fleet now making the reverse trip to be a part of it. We were thankful for the Oregon in those days and it was a day of rejoicing when she steamed into contact with the other ships who were watching the naval power of Spain. So here's to the Oregon and the anniversary of her sailing.

Ten years ago about this time there was real war talk. Two days after the sailing of the Oregon the world was stirred with the late Senator Proctor's stirring report on the atrocities in Cuba and the horror of the Spanish reconcentrado policy. Then for more than a month the question hung in the balance, to be followed by the Congressional resolutions which were a declaration of war. Much has happened since and the strides of the United States have been along such progressive and successful lines that it seems a shame that the muckrakers and carpers should be permitted a voice in anything. It seems about time for the fool killer to make his rounds.

Fremont Older whines that the nobility of soul and unselfish purpose of Rudolph Spreckels are not properly appreciated. In tearful accents Older vouches for the moral integrity and disinterested motives of Spreckels. Readers of Shakespeare will recall that Bardolph made the same avowment for Sir John Falstaff, loyally offering to go the fat knight's security. Nevertheless, Sir John was a great rogue, and Justice Shallow never got his money back. Incidentally Bardolph was hanged for robbing a church. Thus far Spreckels' character witness has fared better than Falstaff's follower.

SAY AUTO CHAINS AID TUBERCULOSIS

Chicago City Fathers Will Take Trip to Test Truth of Charge.

CHICAGO, March 12.—Chains on automobile wheels were last night accused of spreading consumption. The charge was made at a meeting of the City Council Judiciary committee and an ordinance forbidding their use was discussed. Dr. J. L. Pennington, who appeared before the committee said:

"You pass a law forbidding a man to spit on the sidewalk to cure consumption and then you let him put a chain on his automobile wheel to stir up the dust and germs on the street. As a health measure an anti-chain ordinance should be passed."

Members of the committee and Secretary Sidney S. Gorham, of the Chicago Automobile Club will take an automobile trip to test the allegation that chains on tires are a menace to public health.

NEW CEMENT PLANT TO COST $1,000,000

HELENA, Mont., March 12.—Osborn B. HOW'S THIS FOR A PRIZE BEAUTY?

ELIZABETH C. KOFORD.

At six months Elizabeth C. Koford weighs 28½ pounds. How's that for a good-health record? Elizabeth is just as bright as she is strong and healthy, and that is saying a good deal. Just at present she is looking for that $25 beauty prize and will be satisfied with nothing less. Her parents are Mr. and Mrs. H. Koford, 1479 Twenty-first avenue, East Oakland.

SAYS 'EVERY WOMAN IS AT HEART A GAMBLER'

(BY LADY VIOLET GREVILLE.)

LONDON, March 12.—The number of suicides which have taken place lately among business men and speculators in America carries a warning note to women, who, unfortunately, are, many of them, bitten with the love of gambling.

Nothing is so fatal or so insidious as speculating in stocks and shares, and women, from their circumstances, are peculiarly liable to be misled and cheated.

The constant excitement, and the harrowing ups and downs of the market, try strong men's nerves to the utmost. How much more, then, must women suffer, especially when they are gambling not with superfluous cash, but their little all—the savings of a lifetime or an inheritance?

Judicious investment of one's income is a duty, but wild speculation rarely turns out satisfactorily, except, perhaps, for a brief moment. Women are especially susceptible to enthusiasm, to optimism, to the wish which is father to the thought, and to the rash purchase of stock they cannot pay for.

The result to health and fortune is disastrous; and when men begin to suffer from nerves and fly to suicide as their panacea, it especially behooves women to keep their minds calm, their strength entire, for the sake of the family and the future generation. "Every woman is at heart a gambler," might be paraphrased "every woman is at heart a gambler."

IN SOCIETY

ELABORATE PARTY.

Mrs. Mary Haslett was hostess this afternoon at an elaborate bridge party for Mrs. Sidney Haslett, nee Hohnfeld. Over eighty guests from the bay cities enjoyed the delightful occasion, meeting the young matron whose wedding was a recent event.

Mrs. Haslett was assisted in receiving her guests by Mrs. Frederick Hahnfeld, Mrs. Montgomery Haslett, Mrs. Percy Haslett and Miss Brown.

CHILDREN'S PARTY.

Miss Marjorie McDaniel entertained recently at a delightful party for thirty-six guests at her home in Eleventh street. The decorations were violets and greens on the supper table where a menu was served at half past nine o'clock. Games and music were the diversion for the evening.

Among the guests were Borghild Christensen, Miss McCarly, Hazel Roscoe, Edith Reese, Edna Witt, Julia Koshrude, Ruth Koshrude, Jessie Dufranco, May Bell, Marie Poole, Irene Wier, Eleanor Hogan, Lucille Taylor, Minnie Connelly, Elva Lange, Ethel Wilkie, Walton Gardine, Chester Clarke, Walter Witt, Dewey Clarke, John Powers, John Mitchell, Philip Green and many others.

SOCIETY NOTES.

Mrs. C. C. Horton was hostess this afternoon at a luncheon and card party. A dozen guests were entertained. Miss Natalie Rose will remain in Los Angeles for another fortnight as the guest of Mrs. Eugene Howlett. Miss Edith Whitney has been the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Hiram Johnson in San Francisco since the death of her mother several weeks ago. Later she will join her sister in New York. Miss Grace Cook was the complimentary guest at an informal affair given yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Herman Ulrich in Alameda. Miss Dean Tidale is in Washington, D. C., and will leave soon for New York where she will be the guest of relatives. Miss Frances Williamson is expected home early in April after a delightful visit in Tennessee, where she spent several months with relatives.

The marriage of Miss Edna Wemple and James McDonald will take place Thursday evening, March 19, at the home of Mrs. S. T. Alexander instead of the later date in April which was at first announced.

The bride is a graduate of the State University and popular in society. She has taken an active part in the social affairs of the college town and also in San Francisco where she and her mother made their home until recently.

The marriage service will be read by the Rev. Charles R. Brown and the details for the pretty wedding are being planned with care.

The bride will be attended by Miss Sadie Alexander as maid of honor and the following bridesmaids: Miss Ella Wenzelburger, Miss Helen Lillis, Miss Emma Morris, Miss Ruth McDonald.

Dr. E. L. Wemple will act as best man.

After a honeymoon trip the couple will "at home" in North Bend, Coos county, Ore., where the groom is engaged in the lumber business.

THEATER PARTY.

Mrs. Frank Moffitt entertained a half a dozen friends last evening at a theater party given at the Macdonough, to see Mary Shaw. A supper at the home of the hostess in Filbert street followed the early evening at the theater.

JUNE WEDDING.

The marriage of Miss Hazel Burton and Harry O. Stevens will take place in June at the home of the bride's parents at Adams Point. The wedding will be a pretty affair but the plans are not yet complete. Since the announcement of her engagement last summer Miss Burton has been the recipient of many social favors.

THIMBLE BEE.

Miss Edna Lehnardt entertained Tuesday afternoon at a thimble bee given at her home in Telegraph avenue. Among the guests were Miss Ruth Hall, Miss Regula Hoffman, Miss Clara Franck, Miss Anna Franck, Miss Bessie Brown, Miss Sadie Sigoney, Miss Anita Plaw, Miss Kate Bennington, Mrs. Valteau and several others.

BRIDGE PARTY.

Mrs. Herbert Gaskill will entertain tomorrow afternoon at an informal card party to be given at her home. Bridge is the game announced and a score of guests are invited.

PLAYED CARDS.

Mrs. Frank Woodward has hosted recently at an elaborate card party given for her sister Mrs. Henry J. Martin of Los Angeles, who has been visiting here. Over forty friends were invited to meet the guest of honor and Mrs. Woodward was assisted in her duties as hostess by Mrs. Churchill Taylor, Mrs. Harry Noble, Mrs. John A. Weston and Mrs. M. H. Magualey.

CARD CLUB.

Mrs. Edward Hall Dodge entertained the members of a card club this afternoon at her home in Alameda. Luncheon and bridge were the program for the day. The members of the club are Mrs. Oscar Luning, Miss Blanche Layman, Mrs. Chas. Heatley, Mrs. William A. Schrock, Mrs. E. S. Kergen, Mrs. Frederick B. Morse, Mrs. John P. Maxwell, Miss Breiling, Miss Emma Breiling and the hostess.

AT DINNER.

Mrs. Montell Taylor was hostess at a dinner given last evening for Miss Clarisse Lohse. A dozen friends enjoyed the dinner party and an hour afterward at the card tables.

EVENING AFFAIR.

Miss Ruth Kales and Miss Rose Kales entertained last evening at an informal card party given at their home in Lake street. The guests included the members of an afternoon bridge club with a dozen men invited to the evening session of the club. Among those present were Miss Katherine Brown, Miss Ruth Houghton, Miss Lillie Reed, Miss Mollie

WOULD TEACH CO-EDS HOW TO DRESS APPROPRIATELY

Northwestern May Install Department of "Art Appreciation"—Feminine Ornamentation a Science.

CHICAGO, March 12.—In Evanston yesterday plans were made to introduce into Northwestern University a department of "art appreciation"—a chair of "cultivation of good taste." This will aim especially to instill into the feminine student mind notions of appropriate dressing. The movement has back of it the leading women of the suburbs. The project for a teacher of "good taste" took form in resolutions adopted by the university guild and soon to be presented to President Harris of Northwestern.

The guild, which is composed of both university and townspeople, proposes, as an experiment, to support for a term of one year, an instructor whose duty it shall be to teach, especially to women students, the decadent art of good and appropriate dressing.

All branches of art appreciation, including home building and furnishings, will be given. President Harris and the executive committee of the university will consider the matter at their meeting next Monday night.

MAROOINED ON DRAWBRIDGE, PRETTY MAID HESITATES TO CLIMB LADDER; FEARS 12 MEN WILL SEE ANKLES

BRIDGEPORT, Conn., March 12.—Marooned on an open drawbridge, Miss Anne Neely was forced to remain in the middle of the Pequonnock river for twelve long hours because she refused take a chance on showing her dainty ankles by climbing down a ladder to a skiff which would have brought her ashore.

The bridge was opened early this morning to allow dredging operations in the

Recalls Wife's Pet Name When Rat Addresses Magistrate as "Judge"

NEW YORK, March 12.—"It was this way, judge," said Peddler David Rat when asked by Magistrate Cornell in Essex Market to explain why he had no license.

The magistrate burst out laughing. "Well," he cried, "if that don't remind me of home! That's what my wife calls me."

Mr. Rat, being unable to explain, was gently fined $1 after the merriment had subsided.

CINCINNATI WOMEN ROUT MAYOR WHO GAVE ORDER TO ARREST FEMININE CHAUFFEURS

Susan B. Anthony Club Makes Life Miserable for City's Executive, and Now He Says: "I Ate Humble Pie—I Was All Wrong."

CINCINNATI, March 12.—Mayor Leopold Markbreit extricated himself from an embarrassing predicament yesterday by surrendering under a shower of protests from women.

When a few days ago an automobile driven by a woman fatally injured a citizen, the mayor instructed the chief of police to forbid women from acting as chauffeurs.

This incensed the Susan B. Anthony

Club, composed of vote-demanding women, and they stirred up an agitation. As a result, every woman who owns an automobile, and a great many who do not, personally and by mail protested against the mayor's order. "I ate humble pie," he said. "I was all wrong."

Judge Praises Boy for Shooting Policeman Who Ruined His 15-Year Old Sister

NEW YORK, March 12.—When the case of Policeman Edward M. Will, shot by fifteen-year-old Rosie Hoffman's brother, who found him with her in her father's flat, on West Forty-fifth street, comes up before Magistrate Wahl, in the Morrisania police court on March 14, the whole force of the West Forty-seventh street police station practically will be on trial.

"Policemen from the station house led Rosie astray," said the avenging brother's wife. "Will is not the only policeman responsible for her misfortune, nor is she the only girl they have misled. The Children's Society ought to investigate the shameful state of affairs at the bottom."

Will and Hoffman were both paroled by Magistrate Wahl, the policeman in the custody of his captain, who said he had a fine record.

"Everybody has sympathy for you and respects you for what you did," said the magistrate in paroling the girl's brother; "any man would do the same thing." The bullet which Hoffman put in the policeman's leg was still there. Rosie Hoffman refused to testify against him

Chase After Bride and Groom, Who Escaped Over House-Tops, Almost Leads to the Arrest of Pursuers.

They walked along roofs until they reached 620 Hudson street, where they again went through a scuffle, descended to the street and entered a carriage which was waiting for them.

Meantime they were missed at the German Club and one of the guests discovered the open scuffle. All immediately climbed to the roof to look for traces of the bride and bridegroom. Residents of the block, becoming alarmed at the noise, telephoned the police. The reserves were sent out and the block was surrounded.

It took some time for the wedding party to explain affairs to Police Captain Flattery, but he was finally persuaded to make no arrests.

LEAVES FIANCEE WAITING AT THE CHURCH AFTER SWINDLING WIDOW OUT OF $500

NEW YORK, March 12.—The comedy of errors that followed the night wedding in Hoboken of Nicholas Steneck, son of a banker, and Miss Amelia Vintseger, daughter of the president of the German Club, has caused almost as much talk there as the opening of the Hudson tunnel.

A few nights ago young Steneck gave a bachelor dinner, and the jokes that were played on him warned him to be circumspect about his departure with his bride. So, during the course of the wedding reception at the German Club the newly wedded pair stealthily left the festivities and made their way to the roof of the building by way of a scuttle.

to marry me last night, I got a message from his boarding house telling me he was very ill of nervous prostration and that I must not reproach him or the consequences might be fatal to him. I put on the traveling dress I had bought and went to see him. He surely was nervous, for he said the $500 had been stolen from him on a trolley car. "He said not a word about our marriage," the widow concluded. "My eyes were opened. I complained to the Montclair police, but White had vanished; he got over his previous prostration pretty quickly. Oh, to think I should have been such a dupe!"

"Did he get all your money?" asked the reporter.

RELIANCE CLUB BOUTS TOMORROW PROMISE RARE SPORT

COLLEGIANS FAIL TO BRING OFF BOXING EXHIBITION

Murphy and Thompson Should Put Up a Rattling Contest--Both Men Are of the Rough and Ready Order of Boxer.

By EDDIE SMITH.

The Polytechnic Club failed to bring off their boxing exhibition last night as per the schedule, but by its failure it made friends and boosted for it and unless all indications fail the club will be stronger and the boxing exhibition postponed for two weeks from last night will be patronized by even a larger crowd than that which gathered last evening.

The rule or principles of the people who took it upon themselves to say to the young men who have organized the club "You do as we see fit you should or we will not let you do at all," did not meet with the approval of the members or their friends and when the situation is over carefully, it would only seem that the opponents of the club's first show have placed themselves in a most ridiculous position by opposing something they evidently know nothing about and which the great majority of the residents of the University town believe there is nothing wrong in having.

Sam Hulin announced from the ring-side that the college boys of the exhibition as had been announced, was due to the fact that the club had not been incorporated and that under the laws of Alameda County the District Attorney would be compelled to sue the club for the money that was promised that the club had taken steps to get the incorporation papers and that the night's sport would be continued for two weeks, at which time every one holding a ticket for the show last evening would be admitted.

Professor O'Neil of the faculty followed with a few encouraging words to the members. Walter Cristy assured the boys that his men were always ready to defend the club and that this would be impossible had it not been his good fortune to learn a little boxing. Sam Berger made a nice little apology for the club's failure to bring off the exhibition and to prove that the club had lived up to its advertisement he introduced the talent.

After a few songs and stories the crowd filed out of the pavilion, but the consensus of opinion seemed to be that the next show would be better patronized than the one of last evening and at that the hall was well filled.

Murphy May Be Corner.
To those who are in need of a little excitement and who like to witness boxing contests of the honest hard fighting character, the writer prescribes a trip to the Mission street arena Saturday afternoon.

In this time Johnnie Murphy, the hard hitting, rugged little hero of many four round battles, will either make his mark among the good light weights of the day or he will be relegated back to the dumps where many others who have tried and failed.

There is no denying the report that Johnnie is going against a tough proposition in the seasoned old war veteran Cyclone Thompson, but the expectation has shown us time and again that when the fighting is of the slam-bang order, that youth will be served and as this will be a battle where it will be a survival of the fittest, there is reason to believe that the wise men who have made Thompson a 10 to 1 favorite may be all wrong in their figuring.

Of course, Thompson figures to be the favorite in the betting, as his many years of experience entitle him to recognition among the very best of the light weights, but the last showing of Murphy, when he trimmed Dick Scaler so neatly, was of such an improved order that the writer would hesitate about giving his opinion as to just what sort of a fight Murphy may put up. He is improving so fast that no one can tell what he may do and it is sufficient to say that when he meets Cyclone Johnnie that the fair will be no matter who the winner may be and regardless of whether the contest goes two or twenty rounds the spectators will get a good run for their money as long as the contest lasts.

In the preliminary, two men will meet who are more than ordinarily clever and who are so anxious to win from one another that they are leaving nothing undone in their attempt to round into the best possible condition.

Monte Attell and Jimmie Carroll are the contestants and to hear them talk one would think they each had an ace in the hole. Monte assured the writer that the contest would be lucky for both last night that Carroll would be lucky, but some few days ago said that he would do better than his good eye so quickly that the Hebrew boxer would be unable to see him after a few rounds had been seen. The betting on this event is at even.

Sullivan After Ketchel.
Stanley Ketchel, the young middleweight from Montana, who has been cleaning up on the good boys of late and who is the raging sensation of California, will star right close to his work from now until the date of the contest.

Jack (Twin) Sullivan is after him and asks that his offer be given some consideration by the lovers of the boxing game. Jack is willing to meet Ketchel at 155 pounds a few hours before the contest and fight him with the purse split any way that Ketchel may desire. He also says that he is willing to pose with any sporting man of reputation that will give him a chance to prove that he is not a fake in twenty rounds if the match is made at 135 pounds.

McFarland at Millet's.
Jackie McFarland will do his training at Millet's road house in Colma after all. He was to train at Croli's in Alameda, but arrangements could not be made whereby he could train as he wants to, and the Colma quarters were then chosen. Millet's place will be the place where he will stay from now until the date of the contest.

Although Charlie Comiskey's "Seconds" proved rank bloomers, there is very little fear that the team, which will begin its series at Recreation Park tomorrow afternoon with the Seals, will repeat the sad performances of the Reclus.

It will be the White Sox team No. 1 that will play the Seals tomorrow, and it will be quite a different lot from the opera house organization that played here recently.

Barring Anderson and Osteen, there was little or no class to the "Seconds." They played ball as though they had been picked up at some pickle factory or foundling asylum. But in fine sooth they are a latter-day demagogues of misfits. Not one of them showed more baseball grace or spirit than a yarding reeve.

Good ball players are a scarce article. There's about as many high class youngsters floating around as there are white black birds.

Better baseball, however, is promised for the beginning tomorrow afternoon. It will be the real White Sox team, the men who won the world's honors in 1906, and they are a nifty lot.

The Sox No. 1 will play at Freeman's Park Sunday morning, and the game is scheduled for 10, the fans who would like to see good ball for good money. It will be an all-star aggregation that will oppose Mr. Long's young men on that occasion.

Baseball fans, who are as a broad general rule a generous lot, will have a chance to display their liberality next Sunday afternoon by journeying to St. Mary's College campus and doing their utmost to help swell the benefit fund for Dick Parker, the ball player who was recently struck through the lung.

The St. Mary's team will meet the California State team at 2 o'clock in the afternoon at the athletic club at the post. The main event will be a ten-round go between Bill of Battery D and Harris of Troop E. The mer are to weigh in at 135 pounds.

In addition there will be four preliminary fights, with the following as opponents: Hawk of Battery E vs. Gruber of the Sixty-fifth Coast Artillery; Storm of Troop E vs. Lawrence of Troop F; Ferguson vs. Gould, 130 pounds; Duncan vs. Hoffman, 135 pounds. The first preliminary starts at 8:15 o'clock.

Amateur Notes

The Washington Athletic Club will play the Native Sons Saturday morning at 8:30, opposite the San Pablo school. The line-up of the Washington team is as follows: Pitchers, Clarence Felt (manager), Clyde Morris (captain); catchers, Heige Franklin, Bill Daniels; first base, Norris Sinclair; second base, Henry Wals; third base, Clyde Morris; left field, Bill Lavelle; center field, Rudolph Bovo; center field, Bill Daniels.

Mrs. Heber Ingle Wins Tournament

CORONADO, March 12.—The semi-final round over 15 holes match play of the Coronado golf tournament took place here today. Mrs. Heber Ingle of the San Diego and Coronado country club beat Miss Tobey of Chicago, who received a stroke at the third, fifth and seventh holes on each round, 2 up 1 to play, and Mrs. George Sturges, Coronado woman golf champion of 1937, defeated Mrs. G. Garrett of the San Francisco golf and country club, 1 up 2 holes. Neither player received a handicap from the other. The match was all square at the eighteenth hole, and again at the nineteenth hole, but at the twentieth Mrs. Garrett drove into the fence, losing the hole and match.

San Francisco Man in Billiard Match

CHICAGO, March 12.—The committee in charge of the national amateur billiard championship at the Chicago Athletic Association met yesterday and arranged the schedule of the opening games. As a result of the draw for the opening rounds, the present champion, representing the Chicago Athletic Association and Jackson of the Illinois Athletic Club, are paired for the opening Saturday night. Monday afternoon Gardner of Passaic, N. J., and Conklin of the Chicago Athletic Association, are to meet, while Monday night Poggenberg of New York is to play Wright of San Francisco. Tuesday afternoon the loss of the Deane-Jackson game will play the loser of the Gardner-Conklin match.

Fans Here's your Chance to Do Good
Baseball fans, who are as a broad general rule a generous lot, will have a chance to display their liberality next Sunday afternoon by journeying to St. Mary's College campus and doing their utmost to help swell the benefit fund for Dick Parker, the ball player who was recently struck through the lung.

The St. Mary's team will meet the California State team at 2 o'clock in the afternoon at the athletic club at the post. The main event will be a ten-round go between Bill of Battery D and Harris of Troop E. The mer are to weigh in at 135 pounds.

In addition there will be four preliminary fights, with the following as opponents: Hawk of Battery E vs. Gruber of the Sixty-fifth Coast Artillery; Storm of Troop E vs. Lawrence of Troop F; Ferguson vs. Gould, 130 pounds; Duncan vs. Hoffman, 135 pounds. The first preliminary starts at 8:15 o'clock.

Soliders to Have Boxing Tournament
SAN FRANCISCO, March 12.—There will be a boxing contest at the Presidio tonight under the auspices of the athletic club at the post. The main event will be a ten-round go between Bill of Battery D and Harris of Troop E. The mer are to weigh in at 135 pounds.

BIG BOW IN DRIVE TAKES MONTEREY SELLING STAKES

Miss Rillie Easily Saves Place From Red Leaf--Niles Handicap Won by The Misi--Marian Casey Takes Closing Race in a Thrilling Drive From Favorite, Roalia.

BY LEE DEMIER.

An excellent card, enhanced by ideal weather, was the means of enticing a big mid-week crowd to Williams park yesterday afternoon. The program consisted of two high-class fixtures--the Niles Handicap and Monterey Selling Stakes--two purse events--one for two-year-olds and one for older horses once around the circle--and two selling affairs. All excepting the fifth brought together select fields and some clever sport developed.

Salvage far outdistanced the field which raced in the opening number and assuming the lead right after the start, simply galloped all the way. Prestige under an urging ride cleverly outgamed Byron for second place.

Barney Schrieber's filly Seattle was full of run yesterday and made a show of her field in the baby race, second on the card. Mozart the choice, was the close second and with a stronger ride might have been closer up. As much can be said of Woodlander, which finished third.

The Niles Handicap resulted in a serious upset for the talent when The Misi flashed passed the judges an easy winner by a length and a half, with Fireball also at long odds a thing second from Sugarmaid, the favorite. The winner, quoted at 8 to 1, escaped the tugging pace set by Fireball, Sugarmaid and Burning Bush in the early running; but took her to the outside on the turn for home and gained ground steadily, passed the third pace-makers near the wire and on the end was only breezing.

The Monterey Selling Stakes, with a value of $1600 to the winner developed a hard fought finish between Big Bow and Miss Rillie, and the former, under vigorous handling, outgamed the latter in the final half when she appeared to have the race at her mercy. Red Leaf ran a good race with a weight she does not fancy and easily saved the short end of the purse. After the race the winner was worked and extra three quarters of a mile as a prep for the Thornton Stakes, to be run Saturday.

Another favorite and second choice went down to defeat in the fifth when the long-priced, horse grabbed the money. The order of the finish was Taunt, Vinton and Cathaginan, each at 10 to 1 or better.

In a thrilling drive Marian Casey, the 11 to 1 chance, got up in time to nose Roalia, the choice out of the purse. In the final dash, San Alviso was best of the others.

The Monterey Handicap over two miles of ground, was the sporting feature of yesterday's card. The race resulted in one of the best finishes from the head of the stretch to the wire between Big Bow from Aranda, and Little B, Johnny Fretter's horse. Big Bow won the race.

Harry Mack had a good bet on Royal Maxim. He never recovered during the afternoon.

That melodious voice, "Come and get your overcoats, it's the last race," has not been heard in the last few days, owing to the rise in the thermometer.

Owner D. A. Ross' The Mist upset the stew for the Buxtons yesterday.

So did Fireball.

Bookmaker Mike Driscoll, who has been on the sick list for the past two weeks made his appearance yesterday.

The talent made a bolt for the cars when Roalia, the favorite, was beaten in the closing race.

The bookies came out on top of the heap yesterday.

It was a large mid-week gathering yesterday.

The Oakland delegation went wrong on Byromedale.

His Majesty has named three yearlings as follows: Chestnut filly, by Flying Fox, out of Amphora, Flaming Vixen; brown filly, by Persimmon, out of...

Fenton Awarded Punting Trophy

STANFORD, March 12.—Kenneth L. Fenton, baseball captain and senior president, has been awarded the punting trophy for the third consecutive time. The punting trophy is the permanent property of Mr. Fenton. Fenton Brown was probably the best distance punter, but Fenton showed the greater capacity for accuracy.

THE MIST 9-1 Won

The good one my patrons received Wednesday, cashing as usual.

Friday 12-1

Here is one where I advise all my clients to bet the limit, as this is one grand betting proposition. This bet should be a 1 to 2 shot on his work alone. He is in a soft spot and should win easily from his field. Don't fail to get in on this killing.

Saturday 25-1

Details of this affair Friday evening. After you have tried all others, get my information and you will become a winner. Information sheet sold only at office.

of Courtney, Persimmon; and chestnut colt, by Orme, out of Ecila, Orellius.

The stewards of the Broken Hill L. V. Racing Club (Australia) recently held an inquiry respecting the alleged painting over of one horse, and the substitution of it for another, and also the removal of the distance post on the course. The alleged conspiracy, however, was not carried through, so that no losses were made over it. The inquiry was adjourned.

Jockey J. W. Murphy, the colored rider, is sure to make his mark in the saddle this summer, in the opinion of starter Mars Cassidy. He says: "Murphy rides more like Miller than any boy I have ever seen. He is alert at the post and always has a loose hold of the lines, which permits a horse to leave the post on his own lightweights is that they keep a restraining hold of the horse's head and this prevents the latter from dashing away from the barrier with its natural freedom."

Sam Hildreth's Valjean was heavily played at post time to take the baby race.

Bookmaker H. L. Jones wired "000,000" from Arcadia to be placed on Big Bow.

Jockey J. Hayes was there with two to his credit yesterday.

Billy Finn's colors were seen in front when Salvage breezed home in the curtain raiser.

Same little Red Leaf hung on like a bulldog in the handicap.

Treasure Seeker lost the combination of the safe.

The books had all they could do to handle the coin yesterday.

Bookmaker Lee Campbell (Little Eva) is taking swimming lessons to get in condition for the summer campaign.

"Smith" is here from Spokane.

Jockey J. Butler was fined $10 by the judges for striking Senator Warner over the head with his whip. The fine should have been $100.

M. B. Foster, a well-known San Francisco (later), was a visitor at the track yesterday.

Jockey Walter Miller took a lay off yesterday, owing to the shaking up he got the day before.

Bookmaker Phil Hammel laid yesterday that he only had one losing day in thirty.

Jockey "Cricket" Kelly did not expect any money yesterday, as he was too weak trying to reduce to 34 pounds.

Owner and Trainer John Lowe did not bet on Marion Casey. The price frightened him from making a wager. The star Ruby filly went to the post at 12 to 1, which went begging.

The other feature of yesterday's racing was the ding-dong finish between Marion Casey and Ronito.

Richard Dwyer (our Dick) will leave Saturday after the last race for Arcadia to finish up the season at the southern track.

Livins, a candidate for the Thornton four mile race, arrived from Arcadia yesterday. In the same car was "Red" Walker's Stanley Fay and Center Shot.

Bookmaker Eddie Thornton is taking the money for the Boston Club.

"Kid" McRoberts is keeping Thornton in line as to what is doing in the big ring.

Barney Schrieber won a nice bet on the win of Seattle.

Harry Mason said yesterday, when Woodland ran third in the youngster race, "that colt can beat Duke of Milan in workouts."

Owner Jack Keene bet off a chunk of coin on Pontiac and Triumphant.

Big Bow worked out an extra mile, after running the two mile race in 1:46 2-5, easily.

AND ALSO GAVE Salvage..... 5 to 5 won Miss Rillie..... 12 to 1 place Taunt..... 3 to 1 place Cathaginan..... 4 to 1 third

Negro Bandmaster Given Satisfaction

BERLIN, March 12.—A negro musician in the German army was given satisfaction in court yesterday for criticism passed upon him by a white man. The negro's name is Sabak El Cher, and he is bandmaster in the Crown Prince's regiment of the First Grenadier Guards. A white man named Eric E. Peterson wrote a letter to the Deutsche Zeitung, in which he said it was a shame that a black man should be placed in authority over white men in a crack regimental band. Sabak felt aggrieved and took the matter to court. The case was heard today and Peterson was fined five dollars.

HENEY FALSIFIES SAYS RABBI KAPLAN

Assistant Prosecutor's Allegations Concerning Doctor's Motives Declared Untrue.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 12.—Rabbi Bernard M. Kaplan, one of the two ministers, who absolutely with the prosecution and Ruef, matters connected with the immunity contract, very promptly asserted, after having read Henev's affidavit yesterday that the assistant prosecutor had falsified.

He said Henev's allegations concerning the motive which prompted me to interest myself in this matter are as unfounded as a great many of his other statements, which are absolutely untrue. As a minister of religion I take an interest in anybody who is in trouble, be he of whatever faith, or none.

"In my career as a minister I am appealed to nearly every day for assistance in various directions by Gentiles as well as by Jews and I never show any discrimination.

For Public Good.
"As regards Mr. Ruef, however, I will state here absolutely that I did not take an interest in this matter because of Mr. Ruef as an individual. Dr. Nieto, when he first spoke to me on the subject, assured me that my taking part in this matter would be a benefit to the community and to justice, and, indeed, when I met Mr. Langdon, Mr. Henev, Mr. Burns and Dr. Nieto at Mr. Langdon's office on the return of Mr. Henev from the north, I said to Mr. Henev in substance:

"You have made use of my sacred calling to accomplish certain results; I have been most loyal to the prosecution and worked for you to the extent of neglecting my health and many of my duties. Mr. Burns had one out several times until, late at night in the cold attending some of these conferences for the benefit of the prosecution; I have contracted a cold, from which I still suffer; I have given Mr. Ruef and his family my word of honor as a minister that you would keep your promises; don't you think I am entitled to some consideration?"

"To this Mr. Henev replied in the presence of the other gentlemen above mentioned: 'Doctor, you have the satisfaction that it was through you that we got rid of the administration; you have rendered a service to the community; this city will always owe you a debt of gratitude.'

"In view of these statements, which he made in the presence of these gentlemen, which Mr. Henev dare not deny, his insinuations in his affidavit come with very bad grace, to say the least, not to speak of his utter disregard for truth as a public official, whose first duty should be to tell the truth at any cost or sacrifice."

HENEY, PERJURY AND IMMUNITY

"Mr. Henev's allegations concerning the motive which prompted me to interest myself in this matter are as unfounded as a great many of his other statements, which are absolutely untrue. In view of these statements, which he made in the presence of these gentlemen (Mr. Langdon, Mr. Burns and Dr. Nieto), which Mr. Henev dare not deny, his insinuations in his affidavit come with very bad grace, to say the least, not to speak of his utter disregard for truth as a public official, whose first duty should be to tell the truth at any cost or sacrifice."—From an interview with Dr. Kaplan.

Concerning the conference between Francis Henev, Rabbi Kaplan and himself in the Ruef matter, Rabbi Jacob Nieto said last night: "Between 12 and 1 o'clock on the morning of April 28, 1907, Judge Dunne made an unequivocal promise to allow Ruef to withdraw his plea of guilty to indictment $05 and to substitute a plea of not guilty and promised to dismiss the case. Judge Lawlor refused to hear the particulars of what Henev had to say, but stated that as long as he had confidence in the District Attorney's office he would do any and everything the District Attorney's office would ask of him in the interest of justice."—San Francisco Call, January 19, 1908.

French Restaurant Cases Not Touched

(Special to The Tribune.)

SAN FRANCISCO, March 12.—The grand jury which went into session this morning at 9:30 did not investigate the French restaurant cases as was expected. The session was very brief, lasting scarcely over an hour and the only witness called was Mrs. J. Dalzell Robertson, the wife of the bank official of the California Safe Deposit and Trust Company, who is a fugitive from justice.

The examination was conducted by Assistant District Attorney Harrison and it is supposed that an effort was made to find out the whereabouts of the witness' husband. Detective Prohl of the local department, called the attention of the jury to some minor matters in Chinatown, but no definite action was taken.

EFFORTS TO SUPPRESS CARICATURE OF IRISH

CHICAGO, March 12.—Members of the Ancient Order of Hibernians made complaints to the police and postal authorities yesterday concerning post cards having on them the picture of an Irishman wearing a green sash and bearing the letters A. O. H. The cards are declared to be a caricature on the Irish race and detrimental to the interests of the Hibernian order.

Efforts will be made to suppress the sale of these cards and their distribution through the mail and the postal authorities have promised their aid.

MISSIONARIES CLOSE ENTHUSIASTICALLY

PITTSBURGH, March 12.—The last day of the first international convention of the Young People's Missionary movement opened with the interest and enthusiasm even more marked than at any of the previous sessions.

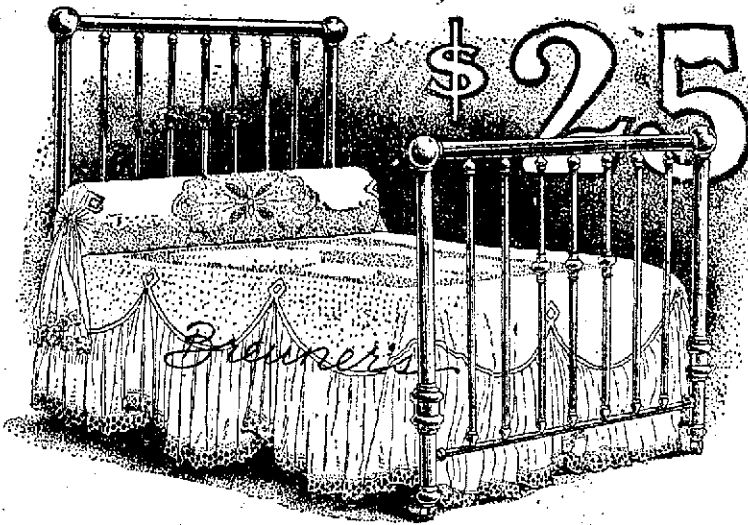

Dr. William Douglass Mackenzie, president of the Hartford Theological Seminary of Hartford, Conn., was the first speaker following devotional exercises. He spoke on the place of missionary education in the life of the church.

Married Women

Every woman covets a shapely, pretty figure, and many of them deplore the loss of their girlish forms after marriage. The bearing of children is often destructive to the mother's shapeliness. All of this can be avoided, however, by the use of Mother's Friend before baby comes, as this great liniment always prepares the body for the strain upon it, and preserves the symmetry of her form. Mother's Friend overcomes all the danger of child-birth, and carries the expectant mother safely through this critical period without pain. It is woman's greatest blessing. Thousands gratefully tell of the benefit and relief derived from the use of this wonderful remedy. Sold by all druggists at $1.00 per bottle. Our little book, telling all about this liniment, will be sent free.
